AMEND Senate Bill No. 2471

House Bill No. 2495***

by adding the following language immediately before the enacting clause:

WHEREAS, Tennessee's open government laws were adopted to bring transparency and public confidence in government and to ensure public participation in the government process; and

WHEREAS, Tennesseans get no assistance in navigating and enforcing complex open government laws and rules; and

WHEREAS, a statewide survey of public records compliance in 95 counties showed that many public employees lack training and knowledge about the rights of citizens under Tennessee's open government laws and transparency mandates of the General Assembly; and

WHEREAS a recent survey of newspaper reports by the Tennessee Coalition for Open Government showed complaints of alleged open meeting law violations increased 45% between 2003 and 2005; and

WHEREAS, a series of appellate court decisions since 1976 have upheld and further defined these citizen rights under the Tennessee Constitution, they are nowhere reflected in statutes to better serve the citizens of the state; and

WHEREAS, it is the intent of the General Assembly that all Tennesseans have the utmost respect and trust in the operation of government and the enforcement of laws enacted for their benefit; now, therefore,
